The wool market regained the losses from the previous sale. Better market sentiment and a slightly weaker currency supported the market today. Nearly 75% of the offering tested 20 micron and finer, which makes comparison more difficult. Certified sustainable wools comprised 20.1% of the Merino offering on offer, compared to 38.2% of the previous sale. The next sale is scheduled for 09 February 2022 where approximately ±9359 will be on sale.
